Book Club

Do you like to read? Join us for our new book club. The first meeting will be a discussion of what types of book and which authors we want to read as well as the format of the book club meetings. Do we want to focus on a few types of books and a few authors or be eclectic and read everything from mysteries to non-fiction histories, biographies and autobiographies?

The group will be led by Jeff Trehwitt, a retired national trade association media spokesman and former journalist.

Date: Every other Monday, beginning September 8

Time: 1:30 p.m. Cost: Free

Current Events Discussion Group

Each session will start with a summarization of an important breaking news event followed by a group discussion about its ramifications. Examples: the resurgence of al-Qaeda terrorists in Iraq and whether the United States should try to help turn the tide by providing military aid to the Iraqi government; or the current debate over immigration reform and opinions on what should be done. State and local issues may also be discussed.

The group will be led by Jeff Trehwitt, a retired national trade association media spokesman and former journalist.

Date: Every other Monday, beginning September 15

Time: 1:30 p.m. Cost: Free
